NWDC Annual “Show and Tell” Wednesday February 16th 7-9 pm

NWDC ZOOM EVENT

All members and guests are welcome whether participating in the “Show and Tell” or not. This is a great chance to show your recent work and get to know the work of fellow NWDC members including meeting our 2021 new Artist and Honorary Members. Watch for the invitation in your e-mail.

Members wishing to participate in the Annual Image Bank “Show and Tell,” are asked to e-mail up to 5 images, jpeg formatted between 1024 pixels on the long side to Ron Pascho. Ron will compile the images into a Power Point presentation. Participating members will be asked to give a brief verbal description of the projected works by “unmuting” when it’s their turn to speak. Works will be presented in alphabetical order. Fill your glass, get comfortable in your easy chair and join us for a stay-at-home artful event.

7:00 pm Welcome

7:10 New Member and Honorary Member Introductions followed by Image Bank “Show & Tell”

Tuesday February 1 is the last day images can be submitted; but
PLEASE send your images early so Ron has plenty of time to prepare the Power Point.

Dixie Stanton 1929 - 2022

We were saddened to hear of the passing of long time NWDC member and northwest jewelry artist Dixie Stanton. Another article will be published in next months newsletter about Dixie's contributions to NWDC and jewelry in the northwest.

Dixie STANTON

May 12, 1929 - January 3, 2022

Born in Eyota, MN, Dixie passed away peacefully in the presence of family on Mercer Island, where she has lived since 1957. Dixie was a renowned Northwest jeweler, a lover of reading, gardening and music. She cultivated many deep and lasting friendships over the years, especially among the arts community. Her artistry, culinary gifts, lively political discussions and kindness will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

The youngest of four sisters, Dixie is survived by her daughters Cary (Dan), and Katherine. Memorial contributions may be made to your favorite arts organizations.
